LOG #1033721

ALLEGATIONS:

On 07 Feb 10, at approximately 1554 hours, the complainant, [REDACTED], telephoned the Independent Police Review Authority and registered this complaint with Intake Aide, Johnson Nicole. Nicole alleged that on 07 Feb 10 at approximately 0930 hours, while at 1004 E. 80th Street, PO Michael St. Clair II #15527 and PO Marvin Coleman #13056: 1) slapped the victim, [REDACTED], twice on the face.

INVESTIGATION:

In a statement provided to IPRA on 18 Feb 10, the victim, [REDACTED], related that on 07 Feb 10, at approximately 0930 hours, he was in his bed room, doing push ups, when he heard a "crash" at the front door and not long after that, heard another one. It was the police entering the residence. They announced their office, and then one of the officers entered his bedroom. The officer told him to turn over and get on the ground. [REDACTED] complied with the request. The officer searched him and stood him up. Another officer entered the room and slapped him on his face. The officer who slapped him asked [REDACTED] for guns and drugs, and when [REDACTED] related that he had none, he was slapped again. The same officer walked him to the front room and sat him down on the couch. The officer accused [REDACTED] of not telling the truth. The officers searched the house and later found clips and bullets, and then threatened him with going back to the penitentiary because he was already on parole. [REDACTED] was subsequently arrested. He described his accused officer as "Tall, African American, glasses, big dude, 230-240, late 30's."

In a statement provided to IPRA on 17 Feb 10, the complainant, [REDACTED], related that on 07 Feb 10, at approximately 0930 hours, she was in the kitchen preparing her son, [REDACTED], a welcome home dinner when she heard a "big boom" at her front door. [REDACTED] headed towards the front door to see where the noise was coming from when she observed about six or seven police officers with "AK-47 or 45 assault rifle" aimed at her, saying, "Don't move, get down on the floor." [REDACTED] was then handcuffed. Her son, [REDACTED] and girlfriend, [REDACTED], were on the couch sleeping when an officer woke them up and had them ([REDACTED]) do the same thing. They were all searched. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was sitting next to her when the officers entered because they were looking at church services. The officers then took [REDACTED] into the bedroom, handcuffed [REDACTED], and sat them on the couch while they searched the house. [REDACTED] stated that they searched the kitchen, a walk in closet and [REDACTED] room. [REDACTED] related that after the searched, she was missing a five carat diamond. The ring was kept in a "small savings bag." [REDACTED] did not see who took her ring, but said that she observed a heavy set male white looking inside the bag. [REDACTED] found her watch, a bracelet and a charm. Initially, when [REDACTED] filed her complaint, she reported those items (watch, bracelet and charm) missing. [REDACTED] did not sustain any injuries as a result of this incident. [REDACTED] further related when asked what the officers found in her residence, she replied a couple of bullets.

[REDACTED] then related that the same exact thing was done to his girlfriend, [REDACTED]. They were all handcuffed and told to lay on the floor. Shortly after, the officers told them all to get up and sit on the couch. The officers then asked if there were guns in the house. [REDACTED] responded by saying that their house was not a dope home. The officers searched the residence, found some shells and arrested his brother [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] indicated that there were approximately seven officers, four blacks and three whites. [REDACTED] was not injured as a result of this incident.

Her mother-in-law, [REDACTED], was in the kitchen cooking when the officers entered. Her and [REDACTED] were told to get up, which they did. They were then placed on the floor and eventually moved over to the couch until the residence was searched. [REDACTED] related that [REDACTED] was arrested because they found bullets.
